Folly Farm

- ▶ The Folly Farm Adventure Park and Zoo (also known as Folly Farm), situated to the north of Saundersfoot and Tenby in Pembrokeshire, is a visitor attraction in Wales with around 500,000 visitors each year. Initially a farm attraction, the park is now also home to an indoor vintage funfair, a zoo with over 200 different species of animal and extensive indoor and outdoor adventure play areas.

Dinky Donkey Walking

- ▶ Have a lovely walk and picnic with some stunning views of the Brecon Beacons, and miniature Mediterranean Donkeys. Maverick, Goose & Bertie are sweet little lads who will carry your picnic (which is provided) in small panniers - it is a quiet amble with only four people per session unless you make a special group booking, so you will have ample time to get to know the Dinkies as you walk. The experience includes grooming the boys and getting them ready for the walk, and learning about this unusual breed and how to care for them on a daily basis.

Lost Cove music festival

- The Lost Cove festival is in Pembrokeshire, in April (however the dates have not yet been revealed). Lost Cove is a surf and music festival on the south coast of Pembrokeshire, that prides itself on putting on the best live performances, different interactive workshops, and surf competitions for all levels. 2019's festival line-up included Foreign Beggars, Danny Byrd, 24 HR Garage Girls, The Mudskippers, and Honey Fungus.
