

Marking guidance pages

Welcome to medieval times: Questions 1–9

Page 5

- 1 What opinion is suggested by the writer in the first paragraph?

Tick one.

Medieval people were less intelligent than people today.

Only healthy people would want to live in the fourteenth century.

Health care was poorer in the past centuries.

People were more concerned about their health in medieval times.

Award 1 mark for:

- Health care was poorer in the past centuries.

(1 mark)

- 2 What does the word prime indicate in the first paragraph?

Tick one.

The sickness in medieval times was natural.

Medieval people were better at avoiding disease.

People were just starting to learn about sickness in medieval times.

There was more than one disadvantage to living in medieval times.

Award 1 mark for:

- There was more than one disadvantage to living in medieval times.

(1 mark)

- 3 Complete the table below to show whether the following health issues mentioned in the text relate to medieval times or modern times.

	Medieval	Modern
tobacco smoke		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> overflowing cesspits	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> dust allergies		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
open fires	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> exhaust fumes		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Award 2 marks for all five rows completed correctly.

Award 1 mark for four rows completed correctly.

(2 marks)

Page 6

- 4 Why might you fall ill?

What is the purpose of this question?

Tick one.

to challenge the reader's understanding to introduce the content that follows

to ask the writer's opinion to provoke an emotional reaction

Award 1 mark for:

- to introduce the content that follows.

(1 mark)

- 5 ... serious injuries are very common.

Look at paragraph three.

Find and copy one other word that tells the reader that violence was a normal part of life in the fourteenth century.

Award 1 mark for:

- inherent.

(1 mark)

- 6 Look at the last line.

... some medieval medical concepts are unhealthier still.

What is the writer suggesting?

Tick one.

The doctors often caught diseases from their patients.

Medieval people did not show any concern for the sick or dying.

At times, the medical care could be more harmful than the illness.

Hospital staff were not well trained or educated.

Award 1 mark for:

- At times, the medical care could be more harmful than the illness.

(1 mark)

Page 7

- 7 Put ticks to show which statements are true and which are false.

	True	False
People were unaware of how illnesses were passed on in medieval times.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Fourteenth-century doctors checked their patients' pulse using a bowl of water.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Modern-day water supplies are free from pollution.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Medieval fighting injuries always ended in death.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Modern-day people may suffer illnesses caused by their choice of floor covering.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Award 2 marks for all five rows completed correctly.

Award 1 mark for four rows completed correctly.

(2 marks)

- 8 Choose the best word or group of words to fit the passage and tick your choices.

People in medieval times were more likely to die from

a) fight wounds chemical poisoning tobacco smoke traffic accidents

and

b) allergies infections animal bites old age than people in modern times.

Award 1 mark for each correct answer.

a) fight wounds

(1 mark)

b) infections.

(1 mark)

- 9 Put ticks to show whether each statement relates to medieval times or to modern times or to both.

	Medieval times	Modern times	Both
Almost half the people die in childhood.	✓
When you fall sick you seek medical treatment.			✓
Information about circulation is unknown.	✓
Medical staff understand germ theory.		✓
Allergic reactions are caused by cleaning fluids.		✓

Award 2 marks for all five rows completed correctly.

Award 1 mark for four rows completed correctly.

(2 marks)

Shoe: Questions 1–9

Page 9

- 1 Choose the best word or group of words to fit the passage and tick your choices.

When Abi lost her shoe, she remembered something similar had happened to

a) her friend. her before. her mother. her helper.

Things did not turn out quite as Abi had

b) hoped dreaded dreamed intended because

c) her shoe disappeared. the train left without her. someone was able to help her. it started to rain.

Award 1 mark for each correct answer.

- a) her mother. (1 mark)
 b) dreaded (1 mark)
 c) someone was able to help her. (1 mark)

- 2 What did Abi think was the cause of the incident?

Tick one.

The gap between the train and platform was too wide.

There was litter on the platform.

She was not wearing suitable shoes.

The ground was wet and slippery.

The train was too close to the edge.

Award 1 mark for:

- She was not wearing suitable shoes. (1 mark)

Page 10

- 4 Look at the text in the box below.

- a) Underline two words that show Abi's mother was proud of her shoes.

I remember my mother's story:
 Her first day at school, her soft new shoes,
 a round, perfect button on each,
 the man that stood on her and sent one to the track, the train that came and went and that battered shoe could not be replaced.

- b) Find and copy one word that shows the contrast in the condition of the shoe once it was retrieved.

- a) Award 1 mark for any two of the following:

- soft
- new
- perfect.

Do not accept:

- new shoes
- perfect button.

(1 mark)

- b) Award 1 mark for:

- battered.

(1 mark)

Page 11

- 7 Look at verse three.

Find and copy two words or phrases that suggest the litter-picker's tool was like a real hand.

1. _____

2. _____

Award 1 mark for identifying both of the following:

- (like a) limb-extension
- (opened its angled) fingers.

Do not accept:

- hand
- limb.

(1 mark)

- 8 ... lengthened
 to the shadows beneath the train.

What does this mean?

It was starting to get dark.

It was able to reach under the train.

The rain made it difficult to see.

The shoe could not be seen.

Tick one.

Award 1 mark for:

- It was able to reach under the train.

(1 mark)

3

... I flex each naked toe in turn and grieve.

What does the word grieve tell us about how Abi felt at this point?

- Tick one.
- She thought the shoe was sure to be damaged or lost forever.
 - She was humiliated by this happening in a public place.
 - She was ashamed of her carelessness.
 - She thought her mother would give her grief.

Award 1 mark for:

- She thought the shoe was sure to be damaged or lost forever.

(1 mark)

5

What does the reference to her mother's story suggest about Abi?

- Tick one.
- She wanted new shoes like her mother's.
 - She had no respect for clothing.
 - She thought it was silly to worry about shoes.
 - She expected her shoe to be ruined.

Award 1 mark for:

- She expected her shoe to be ruined.

(1 mark)

6

Read the statements below about the two stories of lost shoes.

Put one tick in each row to show whether each statement happened to Abi or her mother.

	Abi	Mother
The shoe slipped off as she was running.	✓
She looked around for help.	✓
A train ran over the shoe.		✓
A man retrieved the shoe from the track.	✓
She missed the train.		✓

Award 2 marks for all five rows completed correctly.

Award 1 mark for four rows completed correctly.

(2 marks)

9

What happened at the end of the text?

- Tick two.
- The train departed leaving Abi in the station.
 - Abi waved and thanked her helper.
 - Abi shook hands with the litter-picker.
 - Abi managed to catch the train.
 - The shoe was left lying in a puddle.
 - Abi could not see her helper.

Award 1 mark for both answers ticked:

- Abi managed to catch the train.
- Abi could not see her helper.

(1 mark)

Kakapo: Questions 1–12

Page 13

1 What was it that happened relatively recently?

Tick one.

- The ancestors of New Zealand's birds flew to the island. Kakapos stopped flying.
- Kakapos finally learnt to survive. Human beings brought other animals to the island.

Award 1 mark for:

- Human beings brought other animals to the island.

(1 mark)

2 Who or what are the natives the writer refers to in the first paragraph?

Tick one.

- people whose ancestors lived in New Zealand before the birds arrived birds that were born in New Zealand, even though their ancestors came from elsewhere
- birds that have chosen to move to New Zealand from other countries any people or birds who live in New Zealand today

Award 1 mark for:

- birds that were born in New Zealand, even though their ancestors came from elsewhere.

(1 mark)

3 ... – and this is the point – ...

Why did the writer include this phrase in the text?

Tick one.

- to provoke a reaction from the reader to persuade the reader of his argument
- to distinguish between his opinion and the facts to emphasise the point that follows

Award 1 mark for:

- to emphasise the point that follows.

(1 mark)

Page 14

5 How did the birds' dietary and exercise habits change over time?

Tick two.

- They started exercising after eating, rather than before. They began to eat more for each meal.
- They started to eat a heavier meal before flying. They flew less frequently.
- They ate more often during the night. They started to feast in groups rather than alone.

Award 1 mark for both answers ticked:

- They began to eat more for each meal.
- They flew less frequently.

(1 mark)

6 What is the writer referring to when he says old night parrots?

Tick one.

- They are a species of parrot that warn other birds of danger at night. He uses the term as an alternative name for kakapos.
- It is a general term for any kind of flightless bird that only comes out at night. They are New Zealand parrots which, like kakapos, cannot fly.

Award 1 mark for:

- He uses the term as an alternative name for kakapos.

(1 mark)

Page 15

10 Put these events in order by numbering them from 1 to 6.

- Predators arrived in New Zealand.
- Some birds lost their ability to fly.
- Birds in New Zealand lived safely without threat.
- Flightless birds were at risk.
- Birds' dietary and exercise habits changed.
- Bird numbers reduced.

Award 1 mark for:

4
3
1
5
2
6

(1 mark)

11 Put ticks to show which statements are true and which are false.

	True	False
Being able to fly can help a species to survive.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Kakapos had to learn to fly and eat simultaneously.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Kakapos flap their wings to ward off predators.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
People from Europe went to live in New Zealand.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Kakapos are the only birds that can no longer fly.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Award 2 marks for all five rows completed correctly.Award 1 mark for four rows completed correctly.

(2 marks)

4 Look at paragraph three.
Find and copy the phrase the writer uses to mean a choice between two things.

Award 1 mark for:

- (there is also a) trade off (between flying and eating).

Do not accept:

- instead of.

(1 mark)

7 Find and copy one word that suggests that the writer has not seen a kakapo attempt to fly.

Award 1 mark for:

- Apparently.

(1 mark)

8 Find and copy the phrase that shows that kakapos do have some athletic ability.

Award 1 mark for:

- (will sometimes) run up a tree (and jump out of it).

(1 mark)

9 Most birds, faced with a predator, will at least realise that something's up and bolt for safety, even if it means abandoning any eggs or chicks in its nest – but not the kakapo.

What does this suggest about kakapos?

They do not understand the danger they may be in.

Kakapos prefer to face danger from the security of their own nests.

They are devoted parents and would never leave their young.

Kakapos are too lazy to run away, even when faced with possible danger.

Tick one.

Award 1 mark for:

- They do not understand the danger they may be in.

(1 mark)

12 Put ticks to show which of the following statements from the text are fact and which are opinion.

	Fact	Opinion
... the wildlife of New Zealand consisted of almost nothing but birds.	✓
... there were no predators.	✓
Of these, the kakapo is the strangest.		✓
... it has a look of serenely innocent incomprehension ...		✓
Its wings are just about good for wagging a bit ...		✓

Award 2 marks for all five rows completed correctly.

Award 1 mark for four rows completed correctly.

(2 marks)